

July 3, 1967

Dear Harold and Lillian,

In view of the somewhat sudden onslaught of pro-Commission publicity, I'm really concerned about how things are going in your area of interest.

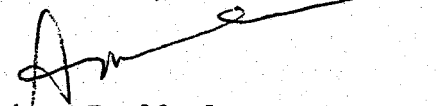

First the NBC anti-Garrison prime-time hour that made anyone who thought there was a conspiracy appear to be an absolute idiot . . . then the 5-page spread in the newspaper two Sundays ago that did more of the same . . . and then the CBS 4-hour split spectacular that had all my friends convinced that being suspicious of the commission report was like being suspicious of Motherhood and the Flag. Such concerted effort didn't look kosher to me.

And it all makes me wonder if you are all OK and if your books are progressing to your satisfaction. As yet I have seen nothing in our local stores with the Weisberg byline. Did the CIA book ever get published? And W-III? If so, I'll have my NYC contingent check out Doubleday's and Brentano's. Am also wondering about your Manchester book which sounded right up my alley.

Lest I worry unduly, please take a minute and let me know that you're not in the midst of Problemsville!

Summer finally arrived in Maine . . . and we think that's great. Am hoping to get to Montreal in early August for a look at Expo 67. Tomorrow is a holiday, and I LIKE THAT!

Sincerely,

Anne Bradford

